2 Hour Life Coaching Session

My name is Candice Kingston and I am a Life and Leadership Coach. Helping people reach their unique potential and creating the life they have always deserved is my personal purpose. In my coaching process, I am the guide to your growth, being a supportive accountability partner and holding the space for you to develop a strong sense of self, to remove obstacles that are getting in your way, and to create plans to live a life full of joy and purpose. I have training as a Core Energy Coach, which is a process that helps clients increase consciousness and best utilize their core energy to emotionally connect inner purpose and passion to outer goals and strategies, ultimately creating extraordinary and sustainable results (Bruce Schneider, Ph.D, M.C.C). I enjoy coaching individuals, couples, and families. My main focus is working with women in transition and helping to get them “unstuck.”

Bourbon Dinner:

This is an opportunity to enjoy a night with the Buffalo Trace Antique Collection. Winners of multiple awards, the antique collection is made up of Eagle Rare’s 17-year-old bourbon, the Thomas Handy Sazerac Rye, George T Stagg Bourbon, William Larue Weller bourbon and the Sazerac 18 rye. The Stagg and Weller have both been ranked by the Whiskey Bible as the finest bourbon of the year multiple times, and the Handy Sazerac has been the top ranked rye under 10 years 5 out of six years running. This is also the last edition of the Sazerac 18 before it goes to a new barrel, and it has been ranked the #1 rye in the world by almost every whiskey publication over the past five years. On the secondary market, this set easily commands over $3,000, and personally, I’ve never laid eyes on another bottle of the ultra-rare Sazerac 18. The whiskeys will be accompanied by a catered dinner, fine wine and other assorted spirits intended to ensure the night is fun for all. Please join us for a very special evening of food, drinks and good cheer.
